Acclaimed as the "the most objective prosecutors in the world", the German prosecution service has long attracted the attention in the past of comparative law scholars.

The German prosecution service: Guardians of the law

As a result, it will critically revise previous studies of German prosecution practices and offer readers a well-researched ethnographic analysis of actual German decision-making practices and the culture of the prosecution service. Unlike prosecutors in America's adversarial system, whom critics claim are driven by a "conviction-mentality" and gamesmanship, German prosecutors are institutionally positioned to function as (at least semi-)judicial officials dedicated to finding a case's ...

The Crown Prosecution Service is the principal prosecution authority in England and Wales. We advise the police on possible prosecutions and take over prosecutions begun by them. We work closely with the police, the courts and other agencies throughout the criminal justice system. In 1998-99 we dealt with more than 1.4 million cases in the magistrates' courts and around 125,000 cases in the ...
